Go, Make Disciples! ~ A Thank You Letter from Pastor Bernie Lutz

Pastor Quast and Congregation,

I am sending a word of thanks for the monetary gift that you at St. Paul's have sent me to go overseas and to make disciples of all nations! What joy. Your gifts tell the world how much Jesus means to you.

Often I think of how weak I am and how strong you people are up there in I. Falls and Fort Frances, as you speak not with your tongue only, but with support. And great things are getting done because of your prayers and support. Well done, good and faithful servants.

If you have any suggestions on how I can serve you and your mission efforts please let me know. I always enjoy speaking and sharing with you people!

Your special gift of money for clergy shirts has arrived, and I receive it with great thanks.

I am very busy getting ready for the trip to South Sudan! Thanks for your help with the $950 to help 20 Lutheran Pastors in South Sudan. You didn't hesitate, but took actions when needed and many people will be blessed because of your decision. Thanks for your great love for Jesus, some of that love has reached me!

May the Holy Spirit guide and direct your lives as you serve Him in so many ways.

Christ is Risen! He is Risen, Indeed! Alleluia.

Pastor Bernie and Elly Lutz

A Note from Pastor Jeff Lee—MN North District Office

The state of Nebraska has an odd tourism tagline: “Nebraska, it isn’t for everyone”. I hear that it started as just a tongue in cheek comment that took off. In the movie Unforgiven, there is a line: “I thought I was dead till I found out it was just that I was in Nebraska.” Hubert Humphrey once said that Minneapolis would just be a cold Omaha without a major league sports team. Don’t get me wrong, I resided in Nebraska for 7 years and found many wonderful people, but I have to agree – Nebraska is not for everyone!

What in the world happened that Nebraska had become such a place that even their department of tourism says that it “Isn’t for everyone”? Honestly, I have been in some churches that it seems that could be their tagline as well. “St. John Lutheran Church – it isn’t for everyone.” Can you imagine changing John 3:16 to read: “For God so loved SOME people that He gave His one and only Son.”? Or how about: “Go and Make disciples of a select group of nations”? Or I have heard, from time to time in congregations that I have served, that we really needed to make a special effort to bring “THAT family” into the church. Or when you stand up for the faith and people leave, you may hear the comment that we lost some “really good givers” as if we should change our position to bring in the dollars.

The truth is: God sent His Son to pay the price for the sins of the whole world. But the whole world has not accepted that gift of life and salvation from GOD. The Church exists to boldly and faithfully proclaim the truth that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life and that NO one comes to the Father apart from Jesus. There is no other name under heaven by which we are saved. That doesn’t mean we become selective in who we share that message of salvation with so that only the “beautiful people” are saved. We share that Good News with everyone, but we also recognize that there are people who will reject that Good News. People will fashion a god in their own image rather than to celebrate Christ in them. Our nation is becoming hostile to the truth of Holy Scriptures, but we can’t take the attitude that “Christ isn’t for everyone”. We don’t discover the truth by turning inward and getting in touch with our feelings. We need to spend more time looking to the Author and Perfecter of our faith. We need to fix our eyes on Jesus. We need to spend more time in the Bible reading it and learning it. We are brought to the waters of Baptism and received into this Holy Nation as a people whose citizenship is in heaven yet residing here in this place and time to share the Hope that we have in the sacrificial gift of God’s Son that covers the guilt of all of our sins. We come to the Altar and confess with the saints there gathered that this IS His Body and His Blood, given and shed for the forgiveness of our sins. As brothers and sisters in the Church, we support and encourage each other as well as admonish and correct each other so that we all grow up into Christ who is our Head. There is no place for the arrogant conclusion that the “Church isn’t for everyone”. In all humility, I have to confess that I don’t deserve to be a part of the body of Christ or a member of his Holy Christian Church. The Holy Spirit called me by the Gospel and brought me into this fellowship. That Holy Spirit continues to call, gather and enlighten the whole Christian Church and keeps it in the one true faith. In this church He daily and richly forgives me all of my sins and the sins of all believers. On the last day, He will raise me and all the dead and give eternal life to me and all believers in Christ.

THIS IS MOST CERTAINLY TRUE.

In His Service, Rev. Jeffrey A. Lee
